

STATE OF ARKANSASState Employees Marriage Disclosure Form

In Compliance with Governor's Policy Directive No. 8, and Arkansas Code Annotated § 25-16-1001

I understand that after August 12, 2005 I could be in violation of Governor's Policy Directive No. 8 and Arkansas Code Annotated §25-16-1001 if I marry another state employee within the same line of supervision whereby one relative could be a supervisor of the other relative. I further understand that the violation will be resolved by;

1. Transferring one of the employees to another position within the agency
2. Transferring one of the employees to another agency.
3. The resignation of one of the employees

Please note: There is no guarantee that a position will be available within the employee's current agency, or another agency.

If the employees are unable to agree upon an alternative within sixty days, the public official shall choose from the alternatives to correct the violation.
